Ephesians 6:4 Fathers and Children

Sermon Outline for May 21, 2000 by Pastor Dennis Tuuri

Ephesians 6:4 And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

Intro – Rasheed and Shaquille

Context – The Supremacy of Christ; Reconciliation of All Things in Him; Bodybuilding through Credenda Agenda, Chapters 1-3; 4-6; 3:21-4:6

4 There is one body

and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling;

5 one Lord, - (Love)

one faith, - Col. 1:23; 1 Cor. 13; Rom. 5:2; 1 Thes. 1:3; 5:8; 1 Pet. 1:21

one baptism;

6 one God and Father of all,

A. The Command to the Child

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 'Honor your father and mother,' which is the first commandment with promise."

1. This command demonstrates that children in Christina homes are to be nurtured, not evangelized. 1 Cor. 1:1-10; Rev. 2,3; Col. 2:12,13; 3:20,21
2. Paul affirms the ongoing validity of the law in this command.
3. Paul affirms the sanctions portion of the law in this command. 2 Cor. 1:19,20; Gal. 6:7-10
  4. The command cites the law that is the first law of the second section of commandments, focusing on how to know if we are honoring God. 1 John 4:20,21; Lev. 19:1-3; 32
  5. The law quoted by Paul puts the honoring of God and His authorities high on the list of the priorities for children, and adults. Col. 3:20; Tit. 2:9; Phil. 2:14,15
  6. The law implies that parents are to act honorably. Lev. 19:29,30
7. This command follows the typically Pauline form of addressing functional subordinates first, pointing us to God's authority.

B. The Command to the Fathers

"4 And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord."

1. The command is to the father, not the mother.
2. The command implies that the father's actions will normally, in Adam, lead to anger and discouragement for his children. Col. 3:21; Mark 9
3. To this negative command (don't provoke) is added a positive one - nurture our children in the faith.
4. Our biggest guarding requirement relative to our children is to guard them from us, their fathers!
5. We nurture our children through deeds and words, boundaries, instruction, and rituals; rod, word and habit.
6. Unable in our flesh to do this, fathers are encouraged that their work is in the Lord, who has called us to this task.
7. We are warned by God of the seriousness of this task. Ezekiel 16:20,21

Song of Anselm

Anselm of Canterbury, 1033-1109

Augustine-Anselm-Aquinas

Jesus, as a mother you gather your people to you:
You are gentle with us as a mother with her children;
Often you weep over our sins and our pride:
tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgement.
You comfort us in sorrow and bind up our wounds:
in sickness you nurse us,
and with pure milk you feed us.
Jesus, by your dying we are born to new life:
by your anguish and labour we come forth in joy.
Despair turns to hope through your sweet goodness:
through your gentleness we find comfort in fear.
Your warmth gives life to the dead:
your touch makes sinners righteous.
Lord Jesus, in your mercy heal us:
in your love and tenderness remake us.
In your compassion bring grace and forgiveness:
for the beauty of heaven may your love prepare us.
